THURSDAY EVENING, AUG. 25, 1904.

Churches as Places of Refuge In War Our ancestors transacted a good deal of business of one kind or another in and about their churches. To begin c. J. RIXEY, President. JNO. GARDNER L. BOOTHE, Second Vice President. with, the churches of old England as turbulent times were regarded as places of safe custody for public and private property. In the border land of England and Scotland the idea was of England and Scotland the idea was park AGNEW. carried out still more completely, and churches, or at least their towers, became regular fortresses and not in-frequently were objects of offense and defense. We may note in rural Eng-land that in the case of ancient churches the towers are often not merely dis-proportionate in size to the rest of the church, but are carefully and strongly built, evidently with an object.

Even in peaceful Surrey and Sussex the belfries are veritable strong rooms with barred windows and massive doors and often contain a massive treasure chest. Hither, at the first alarm, money and valuables were hurried, for beyond the security of thick walls and bars and bolts there was an segis of sanctity which in a superstitious age protected the building from the most ruthless of foes. The fortresslike construction of many of the border land churches is an interesting study of antiquarians .- London Stand-

The Dahlia in England.

The dablia has become popular among English gardeners. In the wild plant the flowers are single, with a dull ray and yellow disk. The varieties of the cultivated forms are almost end-

The original was discovered in Mexico by Vincent Cervantes about 1784 and was first brought to the botanic gardens of Madrid, and the same year it was introduced into England by the then Marchioness of Bute. The plant became extinct in Britain. It was again brought there in 1804, and in that year is found the earliest mention of the dahila, named from Andrew Dahl, a Swedish botanist and pupil of

In Mexico the tubers are cultivated as food on account of the quantity of inulin they contain, but in Europe, though many times tried, they never became popular.

The Evolution of Names.

The evolution of names from foreign tongues into English is in many cases easy. From the German Bauer to the English Bowers and from the French Boulanger to the English Builinger is but a step, as it were. But there are no people who are oftener more hu-morously accused of altering their names than the Irish. Thus Crehan has become Rehan; Carroll, Karl; Dillon, Dyllyn; Divver, Devere and Devyr; McCarty, Macartee and Makart; Slat-tery, Slater and Satterice; O'Brien, Obrion and Breen; McGinness, Guinness and Innes; Rellly, Relyea; Duffy. Dufay; McGuffin, Magoffin; Quinn, Queen; Fogarty, Fougert; Haggerty, Haggart; Sully, Soule. The English singer, Braham, merely dropped a letter when he went on the stage. He was a Hebrew, and his real name was Old Custom Handed Down. How many can tell the origin of the habit of closing the eyes in prayer? Far back in the past the sun was the universal object of worship. As it rose above the horizon the devotee Bros." of universal object of worship. As it rose above the horizon the devotee thanked it for its return to bless the world. As it set in the west he implored its early return. His face was always toward the sun in prayer, and soothes the Throat. Stops the Cough. 250, 500 his eyes were closed to prevent blindness. The habit has passed down from Hamlins Blood and Liver Pills father to son for thousands of years. Though the object of worship has been changed, the custom survives.

If there is a scarcity of gold during the twenty-first and twenty-second centuries dentists, according to a German statistician, will probably be more to blame than any one else.

He assert. that they use every year in filling teeth and other work about 800 kilograms of gold, the value of which is $500,000, and that at this rate the graveyards of the various countries will contain in 300 years from now $150,000,000 worth of gold.

"Your longevity?" repeated the re

"Never had it. As far as I can re member I ain't never had no sech complaint."-Puck.

The Country.

"What is the country?" asked a district visitor of a slum child. The quick reply was, "The place where things are alive." Yet many a country boy or girl says, "I wish I were out of this dead place and in the live city."-Youth's Companion.

"You must come and see us, my dear," said a lady to a little girl of her acquaintance. "Do you know the num-

"Oh, yes," responded the innocent child. "Papa says you always live at sixes and sevens."

End of Bitter Fight.

Two physicians had a long and stubbo "Two physicians had a long and stubborn fight with an abcess on my right lung" writes J. F. Hughes of Du Pont, Ga., "and gave me up. Everybody thought my time had come. As a last resort I tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. The benefit I received was striking and I was on my feet in a few days. Now I've entirely regained my health." It conquers all Coughs, Colds and Throat and Lung troubles, Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggist. Price 50s, and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Violent Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and Perhaps a Life Saved.

"A short time ago I was taken with a violent attack of diarrhosa and believed I would have died if I had not gotten relief," says John J. Patton, a leading cit-izen of Patton, Ala. "A friend recom-mended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhos Remedy. I bought a twenty-five cent bottle and after taking three doses of it was entirely cured. I consider it the best remedy in the world for bowell complaints." For sale by Richard Gibson and W. F. Creighton & Co.

MRS. HELENA BLAU,

Young Milwaukee Society Woman.

EN thousand cured women have written to tell how Wine of Cardui bestows the blessing of health on every woman who takes it, rich and poor alike. Mrs. Helena Blau, No. 123 Seventh Street, Milwauke, Wis., is one of the young women whom Wine of Cardui has rescued from a life of suffering. She writes:

blessing of health on every woman who takes it, rich and poor a like. Mrs. Helena Blau, No. 123 Seventh Street, Milwaukee, Wis., is one of the young women whom Wine of Cardui is certainly worm out women's best friend and I am pleased to give my experience with it. A few months ago I caught a severe cold, having been out in inclement weather, which settled all over me, particularly in the abdomen. I was in almost constant pain. I consuited a physician and took his medicine for a month and without any relief. I then decided I would try your medicine and it was a lucky day for me when I did so. I noticed a change in a few days and felt encouraged to continue taking Wine of Cardui, and my patience was rewarded, for in two weeks my pains had left me and I felt like a new woman."

Wine of Cardui is the medicine that appeals to reasonable women—women who know that Nature is the best physician. Wine of Cardui gives women back their health by giving Nature a change it send that appeals to reasonable women—women who know that Nature is the best physician. Wine of Cardui gives women back their health by giving Nature a change to the menstrual flow and Nature, when relieved of the drains or of the poisons in the system, makes the functional organs strong and healthy again.

Any woman who is silently suffering untold pains because she is too sensitive to deter the result of the drains or of the poisons in the system, makes the functional organs strong and healthy again.

Any woman who is silently suffering a physician's examination and treatment can find no excuse for not securing relief when Wine of Cardui in the privacy of her home, with as much assurance of a final cure as though a dozen doctors recommended it.
